MEMORANDUM FOR: The Record

Pursuant to the Director's instructions, I called Colonel Russ, Executive Officer of the National War College, and advised him that for a number of reasons the Director would prefer to speak at the War College sometime after the first of the year. Colonel Russ said this was agreeable but did request that Mr. Amory speak on the 21st since the subject was part of the course and it would be difficult to change at this late date. This was taken up with Mr. Dulles and Mr. Amory, and it was agreed that Mr. Amory would speak on the 21st. Colonel Russ was so notified and stated there was no need for a confirming letter. He will get directly in touch with Mr. Amory, and Mr. Dulles can expect a letter from General Harrold at a later date regarding his talk sometime after the first of the year.
